PUBLIC NOTICE 62/2022

ESTABLISHMENT OF RUSTENBURG BUSINESS COUNCIL

The Rustenburg Local Municipality adopted a vision to create a world class city driven by a diversified and vibrant local economy; good governance; and inclusive public participation.

In pursuit of that vision, as per Council resolution 114 of 29 May 2018, to facilitate the establishment of the Rustenburg Business Council (RBC), a representative body of various stakeholders active in different economic industries and sectors within the locality. The RBC will provide a platform for the Municipality and business to engage and to work together in developing the local economy.

Based on the above a notice is hereby given by the Directorate Local Economic Development to requests all Business Sectors to submit inputs on the Terms of Reference (TOR) for the Rustenburg Business Council to be established and implemented by Council. TORs can be accessed on the Rustenburg Local Municipality Website.

SMME's are further requested to submit company information to assist the directorate in compiling a sectoral database that will assist them carry out their mandate of creating a conducive environment for SMME's in Rustenburg. This includes:

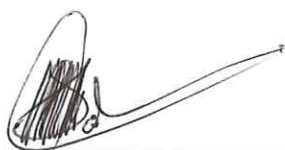

- Facilitating opportunities for training and skills development
- Strengthen and foster relationships with different stakeholders in Rustenburg
